

AT OUR MEETING ON 30 AUGUST WITH EVDOKIMOV, BENA AND HAJAK CONCERNING THE RODINO BILL IT WAS AGREED THAT I WOULD CALL JIM CLINE TO SEE WHETHER OR NOT HE FELT ANY FURTHER EFFORT WAS NECESSARY TO MOVE THE BILL ALONG. I TALKED TO CLINE YESTERDAY. HERE ARE THE QUESTIONS I ASKED AND HIS RESPONSES.

1. SHOULD THE COMPANY AND/OR THE GUILD TAKE ANY STEPS TO HELP INITIATE COMPANION LEGISLATION IN THE SENATE?

CLINE SAID THAT HE FELT IT WOULD BE PREMATURE TO DO ANYTHING NOW AND THAT THE TIME FOR ACTION WOULD BE WHEN THE LEGISLATION PASSES THE HOUSE. HE SAID RODINO WOULD GET A SPONSOR IN THE SENATE AT THAT TIME AND WE COULD THEN OFFER OUR SUPPORT.

2. SHOULD THE GUILD ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN FURTHER PRESSURE FROM PEOPLE IN THE CLEVELAND AREA?

CLINE SAID THAT HE FELT THIS WOULD NOT BE USEFUL AT THE MOMENT SINCE THE CHAIRMAN APPARENTLY IS WILLING TO GO ALONG WITH THE BILL.

3. DOES MR. CAHILL STILL HAVE ANY DOUBTS AND IF SO WOULD IT BE HELPFUL TO HAVE PEOPLE IN NEW JERSEY WRITE HIM TO INDICATE THEIR SUPPORT?

CLINE SAID THAT HE FELT CAHILL'S DOUBTS WERE RESOLVED AND, THEREFORE, IT WOULD NOT BE NECESSARY TO DO ANYTHING.

CLINE REPORTED THAT AS A RESULT OF THE LAST HEARING, THE CONCERNS OF CERTAIN COMMITTEE MEMBERS THAT THE BILL WAS OPEN ENDED AND THAT IT SEEMED TO PERMIT EASY IMMIGRATION FOR CUSTODIAL EMPLOYEES HAD BEEN RESOLVED BY THE IMMIGRATION SERVICE WITNESS. CLINE PROMISED TO KEEP ME POSTED IF ANY CHANGES OCCURRED.
